The Germans continue in retreat everywhere between Arras and the Soissons sector under the violent attacks by the Allied troops. As yet there seems to be no slackening in the offensive that is steadily reclaiming numerous French towns and villages and territory that long has been in the hands of the enemy.

Indeed, instead of halting his men for a breathing spell, Marshal Foch seems to be pushing them forward with greater impetus and at present the retreating enemy shows no indication of turning and offering more of a battle than he recently has been giving with his machine gunners and infantry units that are acting as rear guards to aid in covering the eastward retrograde movement.

Already outflanking the old Hindenburg line on the north, Field Marshal Haig's forces gradually are cutting their way eastward both north and south of the Somme and putting down strong counter offensive actions, although on several sectors they have had to cede ground temporarily.

British Capture Bapaume.

Late last evening word was received that the British have captured the important town of Bapaume, where for days there has been bitter fighting, the Germans exerting their utmost strength to keep Haig's men from gaining control of the railway and the high road leading to Cambrai. To the south, the British also are reported to have penetrated to the outskirts of Maurepas, another point of strategic value. Along both sides of the Somme, running eastward, ground has been gained, and south of Peronne, where the river bends sharply southward, the stream has been crossed at several points and this important railway junction outflanked.

Since the caving in of the German line by the fall of Chaumes and Roye, the French literally have overrun the southern portion of Picardy, having reached the western bank of the Canal DuNord along almost its entire length and captured the town of Noyon, which, surrounded by hills, has stood defiantly for days under a rain of shells. East and southeast of Noyon, other important positions have been taken and between the line and the Aisne the French have overcome the heavy resistance of the enemy and crossed the Ailette river.

Americans in Severe Fighting.

Northwest of Soissons, where the Americans are in the line with the French in the general movement of forcing Picardy of the enemy, there has been severe fighting, but with the Allied forces having the advantage. The American sector is between Chateau and Juvigny and the enemy forces include the Prussian Sixth Infantry.

Along the Vesle river at Bazoches and Fismette, the situation is rather less tense than it was Tuesday and Wednesday, when heavy fighting occurred between the Americans and the Germans. Thursday the Americans heavily shelled the German positions but the Germans failed to accept the challenge to a duel and retreat only feebly. The claim of the American war office that 350 Americans were made prisoner during the recent fighting is denied by the Americans, who assert that only a few of the men are missing.

New York Postmaster Holds Up Government Pamphlets

New York, August 29.—Suit to compel Postmaster Patten of New York to send through the mail pamphlets on the war and on the government action against the I. W. W. was filed in federal court here today by 16 members of the National Civil Liberty Bureau. Plaintiffs listed in the suit include Mrs. Helen Phelps Stokes, L. Hollingsworth Wood and John Haynes Holmes.

The complaint alleges that Mr. Patten has barred from the mails a number of pamphlets which the complainants say are properly mailable under the law. Some of the pamphlets alleged to have been barred illegally are "Truth about the I. W. W.," "Following the Trail of the I. W. W.," "War's Heredity," and "The Facts About Conscientious Objectors in the United States."

FRENCH PUT GERMANS INTO ANOTHER POCKET

Teutonic Troops Now Menaced Between Canal DuNord and the Aisne River

(Havas Agency.)

Paris, France, August 29.—Some units of the armies of General Debene and General Humbert, north of the Oise river yesterday advanced more than 12 miles, according to the transigent.

The newspaper confirms the report that French troops have reached the region of Ham, and adds that it does not seem possible that the Germans will be able to hold Guiscard for any length of time. Guiscard is on the high road midway between Noyon and Ham.

With the French Army in France, August 29, Evening.—The operations of the past two days have put the Germans into another pocket between the Canal DuNord and the Aisne. They will have to evacuate it promptly or run a big risk of having their positions there turned from the north by the French along the valley of the Somme.

Since the fall of Noyon, which was the apex of this salient until this morning, Mont St. Simeon, a mile and a quarter to the east, is its advanced defense. This height dominates the valley of the Aisne eastward and the valley of the river Meve and the Canal Du Nord to the north. These valleys were lined in the salient last night.

The taking of Queenoy wood this morning has tightened the pocket from the western side, bringing the French within shelling distance of the main road leading out of it in the direction of Ham. The road from Noyon to Chauny, which skirts the salient on the south, has been under the fire of General Mangin's artillery for several days.

Between the roads to Ham and Chauny, a succession of heights extend from Mt. St. Simeon to Chauny, forming a position of great strength. The Germans are violently shelling the French lines from there today, but the imminence of danger, threatening their communication to the north, suggests that they are merely using part of the immense ammunition supplies there to ease the pressure which had been so strong as to require them to abandon ammunition all over the field of the Aisne.

The French troops, having gained a foothold in the valley of the Somme northeast of Nesle, may naturally be expected to advance eastward on Ham, which will render the stronghold of St. Simeon and the ridge leading east useless to the enemy, while enormously increasing the difficulty of getting the rear guard out of the salient.

BOSTON SYMPHONY'S LEADER.

Boston, Mass., August 29.—The appointment of the American violinist, Frederick Frickin of Troy, N. Y., as concert master of the Boston Symphony orchestra to succeed Anton Witke was announced by the trustees of the organization today.

Mr. Frickin is the youngest man to hold the post since Franz Kneisel, was appointed in 1888.

seems to be somewhat clarified through the disarming by the Czechs-Slovaks of all the Russian volunteers, who revolted recently and took sides with General Horvath, the anti-Bolshevik leader.

The first big battle in which the Allied forces except the Americans took part occurred last Saturday, when the enemy attacked, but was decisively beaten. At last accounts, the Allied troops were steadily advancing against the enemy.

SENATE ADOPTS DRY AMENDMENT

Measure Calls For National Prohibition From June 30, 1919,
Until Army Is Demobilized

OFFICIAL TEXT OF BILL

Its Purpose Is to Conserve Man Power of Nation and Increase Efficiency

Washington, D. C., August 29.—The Sheppard compromise amendment for national prohibition June 30, 1919, and continuing until the American army is demobilized, was adopted late today by the senate without a roll call.

Disposal of the emergency agricultural appropriation bill to which the Sheppard amendment is appended, went over.

The text of the amendment follows: "That after June 30, 1919, until the conclusion of the present war and thereafter until the termination of demobilization, the date of which shall be determined and proclaimed by the President of the United States, for the purpose of conserving the man power of the nation and to increase efficiency in the production of arms, munitions, ships, food and clothing for the army and navy, it shall be unlawful to sell for beverage purposes any distilled spirits, and during said time, no distilled spirits held in bond shall be removed therefrom for beverage purposes, except for export.

No Grain for Manufacture of Liquor.

"After May 1, 1918, until the conclusion of the present war and thereafter until the termination of demobilization, the date of which shall be determined and proclaimed by the President of the United States, no grains, cereals, fruits or other food products shall be used in the manufacture or production of beer, wine, or other intoxicating malt or vinous liquors for beverage purposes.

"After June 30, 1919, until the conclusion of the present war and thereafter until the termination of demobilization, the date of which shall be determined and proclaimed by the President of the United States, no beer, wine, or other intoxicating malt or vinous liquor shall be sold for beverage purposes, except for export. The commissioner of internal revenue is hereby authorized and directed to prescribe rules and regulations, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury, in regard to the manufacture and sale and removal of distilled spirits held in bond after June 30, 1919, until this act shall cease to operate, for other than beverage purposes; also in regard to the manufacture, sale and distribution of wine for sacramental, medicinal or other beverages uses.

Prohibit Importation of Intoxicants.

"After the approval of this act, no distilled malt, vinous or other intoxicating liquors shall be imported into the United States during the continuance of the present war and period of demobilization.

"Any person who violates any of the foregoing provisions shall be punished by imprisonment not exceeding one year or by fine not exceeding $1,000 or by both such imprisonment and fine.

"Provided, that the president of the United States be and hereby is authorized and empowered at any time after the passage of this act, to establish zones of such size as he may deem advisable about coal mines, munition factories, ship building plants and such other plants for war materials as may seem to him to require such action, whenever in his opinion the creation of such zones is necessary and advisable in the proper prosecution of the war, and that he is hereby authorized and empowered to prohibit the sale, manufacture or distribution of intoxicating liquors in such zones, and that any violation of the president's regulation in this regard shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than one year or a fine of not more than $1,000, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

"Provided, further, that nothing in this act shall be construed to interfere with the power conferred upon the president by section 15 of the food control act, approved August 19, 1917."

Wadsworth Calls Measure "Fake."

Senator Wadsworth of New York said, as a war prohibition measure this amendment was a "fake," and that there never had been any "stability of opinion on the part of its supporters."

In view of the fact that it will take two years to transport the troops to France, Senator Wadsworth suggested it might require that long to bring them back, and he asked Senator Sheppard the purpose of extending the operation of the measure until the termination of demobilization.

Charge for Installation or Changing of Phones

Washington, D. C., August 29.—Under orders issued today, all changes in telephone rates must be submitted to Postmaster General Burleson for approval before becoming effective and the companies are required to make a charge for installing new telephones or changing the location of old ones.

A statement by the Postmaster General says that new charges are necessary to conserve labor and material and to eliminate a cost which is now borne by the permanent user of the telephone.

Installation charges where the rate is $2 per month or less will be $5; where the rate is more than $2, but not exceeding $4 a month, will be $10; and where the rate is more than $4 a month will be $15.

The moving charges to the subscriber, the statement says, will be the actual cost of labor and material necessary for making the change.

The order for submission of rates does not affect the notice of the Postmaster General in taking control stating that "until further notice the telegraph and telephone companies shall continue operations in the ordinary course of business through regular channels." It merely means, it was explained, that approval must be given before new rates actually go into effect.

HOUSE APPROVES DRAFT OF THE MAN POWER BILL

Measure Fails to Reach Senate Before Adjournment, Postponing Enactment to Today

Washington, D. C., August 29.—Although the house late today approved the conference draft of the man power bill, extending selective service to include all men between 18 to 45 years, the measure failed to reach the senate before adjournment and its enactment and transmission to President Wilson was postponed until tomorrow.

Plans of leaders to rush through the bill today went awry through their miscalculations but they were positive tonight that the bill would be in the President's hands tomorrow within a few hours after the senate reconvenes and probably signed by the executive before night. Even with today's delay, leaders believed, a record is established in passage of such an important measure, directly affecting the 15,000,000 men who will be added to the military rolls and unfold millions of others indirectly, as the measure was reported to the senate but two weeks ago today and passed by both bodies virtually unanimously.

Senate and house conferees promptly reached a formal agreement on the bill today, following removal yesterday of the "work or fight" amendment—the principal obstacle. The conference report was adopted by the house without a roll call.

Although the senate remained in session late prepared to dispose of the report after the house had acted, the house vote came too late. Chairman Chamberlain of the military committee stated that he inquired, shortly before the senate adjourned, of the prospects in the house, and was informed that debate there probably would prevent its return to the senate. While the senate was closing its day's affairs in executive session the house finally approved the report, but senate leaders were not advised of the action until adjournment had been taken.

HUNS BOUGHT U. S. POTTERY.

Buffalo, August 29.—Alfred L. Becker, deputy attorney general, declared in a speech here tonight that German money had been used extensively to buy pottery in the United States in order to drain the supply of potters which is essential to the manufacture of stoneware and also to the making of detonators for exploding ammunition charges. "The Germans reasoned," said Mr. Becker, "that if they could get enough pottery to simulate the manufacture of stoneware they would exhaust the supply of potters and thus curtail shipment of munitions to the Allies."

end sooner than it was now anticipated. "If use of distilled spirits were prohibited and that of beer and wine permitted," Senator Wadsworth declared, "prohibition would cease to become an issue in American life, including politics." When Senator Borah asked if brewing should not be stopped to conserve food, the New York Senator replied that the food administration has ordered to remove the restrictions on use of wheat.

YANKS ADVANCE IN TANK ATTACK

Americans Sweep Against German Line Which Falls Back Over Juvigny Plateau

BOCHE USE NEW GUNS

"Tank Guns," a Sort of Super-Mausers, Fail to Stop Advancing Troops

Washington, D. C., August 29.—"North of the Aisne our troops have made progress in the region of Juvigny, in spite of the strong resistance of the enemy," General Pershing's communique tonight says.

"Our patrols were active along the Vesle and in the Woivre, and brought in prisoners."

With the American Army in France, August 29.—Accompanied by a fleet of tanks and covered by a heavy artillery barrage, the Americans swept forward early today against the German line that slowly and reluctantly fell back over Juvigny plateau. The little operation carried out yesterday by the French and Americans had been merely preparatory to the attack which began at 7 o'clock this morning.

The firing was continuous throughout the night on both sides, the German guns being especially active. The rains of the early evening ceased before the ground had been converted into mud, so when the order was given today the men moved forward unimpeded.

The German positions were shelled most vigorously by heavy guns, mortars and light pieces, firing almost point blank, as well as by long range naval guns, which reached the positions far and near. And then the infantry advanced.

Troops Dash Over Plateau.

Up the plateau the infantry went toward Juvigny and across the little railroad running north and south. The Germans immediately began to employ the tactics of similar retreats, leaving their rear defended by a line of machine guns hidden behind every clump of brush, promontory and woods. Only a few detachments of infantry were left, the enemy again adopted measures calculated to save the most men possible.

From Couronne woods and another little wood, standing like sentinels between Juvigny and the American line, the German guns delivered a deadly cross fire. Juvigny is only a village, but located along the side of a hill, it offered a peculiar opportunity for defence, until the advancing forces moved into positions from which they were able to make it untenable. The resistance then stopped, the Germans retreating further east into more broken ground. The frontage assigned to the Americans was less than two miles.

That part in which Juvigny is located was the scene of a dramatic tank drive. Under the cover of artillery, the little French tanks fired along both sides of the path up to the little place, smashing down one machine gun nest after another in spite of the employment by the Germans of their new tank guns, a sort of super-Mausers. This gun is virtually identical with the Mauser except that it fires a bullet a little more than half an inch in diameter. This, it is calculated, can pierce the tank and possibly injure some vital parts of the engine. But in the path of the advancing machines, there now lie broken or smashed into the earth scores of these little guns.

All the skill of General von Scherren, commanding the Seventh Guard Division, is being exercised to hold back the Americans at that point in the line north of Soissons and save the Germans from the menace that would be under if the Allies occupied the plateau extending further toward the east.

Recovering before the day ended from the shock of the early morning attack, von Scherren brought into play his artillery and other resources in a desperate effort to check the movement. Equally determined efforts were made by these organizations in front of the French divisions on the right and left of the Americans.

Huns Make Determined Stand.

Reports from points on the line where the attack is in progress indicated that the Americans are confronted by what is believed by many to be one of the most determined stands yet taken by the Germans, who realize that a break at any point would likely be followed by disaster.

Allied Forces Defeat Enemy on Ussuri Front

(Reuters Agency.)

Vladivostok, Monday, August 26.—The enemy in considerable numbers attacked desperately along the Ussuri front last Saturday. All the Allied forces participated in the fighting except the Americans. Upwards of 500 of the enemy were killed.

The Japanese bore the brunt of the fighting. They captured two armored trains and several field guns.

According to a wounded Czech, the Japanese, infuriated by finding mutilated comrades on the battle field, charged and routed the enemy in the face of heavy machine gun and rifle fire.

The Japanese report that the Allied troops are advancing steadily, before their possession is undisputed.

The rapidity with which the gains were made by the Americans and French early in the day was not duplicated in the afternoon, when the battle settled into a strong artillery duel in which the guns of both sides fired often at direct targets and at unusually close range.

The country which has been the battle field almost four years again is the scene of a conflict which has started with the promise of being one of the most stubbornly fought. Tonight, the sky is dotted with flashes of exploding shells, while the roar of the barrage and counter barrage must be audible almost to Paris. In the back areas, shells are falling behind the Americans, but not so frequently as at many times previously. The Germans apparently are using their guns and energy in attempting to tear down the determined lines of their advancing foe.

Two captured officers, when questioned today by intelligence officers, attempted to give the impression that little resistance would be made, assuring the officers that there were few machine guns left employed. While telling the story, however, it was being refuted within their own hearing.

Hillsides Crackle With Firing.

How many hundreds of thousands of these little guns the Germans have immediately in front of the Americans is not known, but the number is quite up to the lately developed German tactics. Every hillside, ravine and wood crackles with their fire whenever they are approached. And it has been in the face of their destructive offense that the Americans and the French as well, have been moving.

Comparative little gas has been employed by the enemy, perhaps because the wind has not been altogether favorable for its use. There have been at the dressing station a few men suffering from mustard gas, but most of them encountered it in shell holes, hollows and depressions where it was old, but still effective.

The Germans today concentrated much of their efforts on the destruction of tanks.

QUIET AGAIN RESTORED ON SOUTHERN BORDER

Official Reports to Washington Emphasize Trouble Soon, If Not Not Already, Will End

Washington, D. C., August 29.—Official reports to the war and state departments today emphasized that the border trouble at Nogales, Ariz., will soon end, if it has not really ceased.

Reports from Major General Holbrook, in command of the border, said quiet was restored. State department dispatches told of satisfactory results from the conference between Brigadier General Cabell and Governor Calles. At the Mexican embassy it was stated that Governor Calles could be counted upon to stop the activities of the German propagandists in Sonora.

Such information as the state department received on the forcible entry armed Mexicans into the American consulate at Nogales, Sonora, and the wounding of American Consul Tooley, indicated that the incident was the act of irresponsible persons and not the Mexican military.

The violation of the consulate is now under investigation, but there is every disposition on the part of the officials here to treat the Nogales affair as a purely local incident which should not be elevated to an international issue.

400 MILLIONS FOR ENGLAND.

Washington, D. C., August 29.—An additional credit of $400,000,000 for Great Britain was established today by the treasury department. This brought the total credits of Great Britain to $2,725,000,000 and of credits to all the Allies to $7,922,040,000.

ENGLISH GAIN MORE GROUND

Capture of Bapaume Officially Announced in Field Marshal Haig's Report

HUNS COUNTER ATTACK

Every Thrust, Except One North of the Scarpe River, Comes to Nought

London, England, August 29.—The occupation by the British of Bapaume was officially announced tonight in Field Marshal Haig's report from British headquarters.

Field Marshal Haig reports that along the whole front from Bapaume southward the Germans have been forced to retreat with great losses in prisoners, guns and materials. The British have reached the west bank of the Somme opposite Brie and Peronne.

With the British Army in France, August 29, 4 p. m.—The British forces gained additional ground today. There has been hard fighting in the Scarpe region, where the German resistance is being sustained regardless of cost, in an effort to save their Drocourt-Queant line. As a matter of fact, the line is still intact, but this is solely because the British have not actually carried out any assaults against it.

British Straighten Out Line.

In the operations today there was desperate fighting for the purpose of straightening out the British line and pushing closer to the enemy positions. Individual Germans in this locality, as at other places, are showing increased dislike for the war that is going against them. But in a body, and under the watchful eye of their officers, who, incidentally have been forced to shoot some of their men for refusing to obey orders, the enemy is offering the stiffest resistance.

Other British troops this afternoon beat down opposition and are moving through Thillois, just south of Bapaume. The whole British line here seems to be on the move. The Germans are falling back, leaving large numbers of machine guns on the ground out of which they are being pushed.

By this movement, their line conforms with those in the north with respect to the old Hindenburg line. By reason of the fact that the line shoots off to the northwest, the troops up near the Scarpe reached its continuation in the shape of the Drocourt-Queant switch earlier than the other divisions.

In the north heavy fighting is in progress on both sides of Bullecourt and in front of that town. From the south of Bullecourt, all the way to the Scarpe, the operations are aimed at straightening the line and gaining ground. Villers-Carbonnel and Bar-leux have been taken.

Huns Launch Counter Attacks.

Within the past 24 hours, the Germans have launched several heavy counter attacks, fresh troops being employed. In every case except one the enemy was beaten back with terrible losses, gaining no ground whatsoever.

The one exception was a counter attack south of Gavrelle, north of the Scarpe, where the Germans managed to penetrate the British lines, but they did not remain there long before they were driven out and British posts were reestablished as before. The only result was to carpet the ground in front of the British with German dead.

There has been extraordinarily heavy fighting for Greenland hill. This position was reached once by the British, but was relinquished during a counter attack yesterday. It is now entirely British once more. The British captured many prisoners. Every counter attack delivered by the enemy also gave additional prisoners.

Battlefield Covered With Debris.

Here and there a wall stands naked in this war-created desert. Occasionally near them lies a mass of old gray clothes filled with what remains of a body of a German soldier. The ground is littered with all sorts of implements of war, some of them new and some shot to pieces, and also empty cans in which rations had been issued. Everywhere there are shell craters and criss cross trenches. Long strands of barbed wire are to be seen, some with the rust of years on it and some comparatively new.

In the distance now and then there is a cloud of dust and smoke arising from a "village," showing where a high explosive shell has just landed. This country is what the British have been taking away from the Germans but not far away there is land that the war has not touched since 1914. The British are within less than four miles of this country at the nearest point.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

The New York Markets.

New York, August 29. — Foreign advances, as indicated by the continuous sweep of the Allied forces, and domestic developments, including publication of many excellent railroad statements for July, were distinctly favorable today, but the stock market lapsed into apathy, with moderate irregularity at the end.

The change in sentiment was largely ascribed to the statement of leading banking interests, threatening "corrective" measures against speculations on borrowed money and reports from Washington to the effect that the new Liberty loan is likely to aggregate six billion dollars.

In keeping with its recent course, General Motors furnished the chief diversion on its further extreme collapse of 10½ points, a total of 20 points since last Saturday, rallying three points later.

Steel, recognized war issue, tobacco and various unclassified shares reacted one to two points with shipplings, although the latter started off with a display of strength under lead of Atlantic Gulf.

If you have a drop of American blood you will see this great masterpiece.

Don't say you have seen this picture or that picture, because there never was a picture made that can compete with this masterpiece.

You bought a Liberty Bond!

You subscribed to the Red Cross, didn't you?

Well, seeing this picture is just as patriotic a duty.

This picture is taken from true facts.

They Killed Women and Children

The picture begins with the Zabern incident, the cutting down of a lame shoemaker by a young Prussian officer.

Gerard's futile efforts to avoid the war on July 31. The address of the Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin. The sinking of the Lusitania.

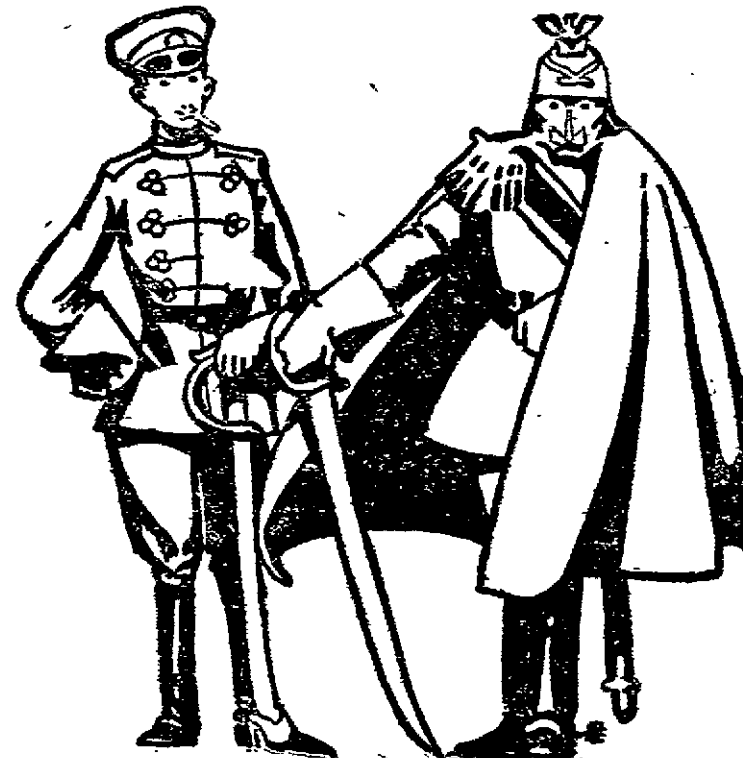

The unrestricted submarine warfare.

The Kaiser's threat that he would stand no nonsense from America after the war.

The deportation of Belgian women and children. And many other great scenes.

DEATH OF MRS. E. M. HURLEY.

Proprietor of the Breffle House at Otsego Expires Wednesday.

Otsego, August 29.—On Wednesday morning at 6:15 the lifeless body of Mrs. Elizabeth Hurley was found in the pastry room of the Breffle hotel. Mrs. Hurley was preparing breakfast and had gone into the pastry room, where she was mixing some breakfast cakes, when death came.

She was born at Gilboa, Schoharie county, 1850, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Miller. In 1887 she was united in marriage to John Hurley at Stamford, to whom she has always been a devoted wife. Mrs. Hurley was a woman of splendid character and has always lived a busy and useful life. For nineteen years she was cook at the Central hotel, Oneonta. Ten years ago she bought the Breffle house at Otsego, where she has since lived.

The deceased was a member of the Baptist church.

Mrs. Hurley is survived by husband above mentioned, one sister, Mrs. Alfred Zeh, of Otsego, and five brothers: Henry, Joe, and Grant, of Gilboa; William, of Summit, and George, of Sidney.

The funeral will be held at the Breffle house Friday at eleven o'clock. Rev. Frank Harwood of Adams officiating. Burial at Stamford.

Marriage.

Miss Hazel Merithew, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Merithew, of Otsego, and Roy J. Eddy, of Oneonta were united in marriage Sunday, August 18, on the Sidney camp grounds by Rev. William Lathrop. They were attended by Mrs. Myrtle Leroy of Otsego and Ernest J. Lynch of Oneonta. Best wishes are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Eddy for a happy wedded life.

Moves to Otsego Village.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Coon have moved from the West Branch to the late Martin Briggs' home on lower Main street.

Mrs. Swink Entertains Class.

Mrs. Henry Swink entertained her junior elocution class at a lawn party on Tuesday afternoon last. Games passed the time most pleasantly. Light refreshments were served.

Boy Scouts Rent Room.

The Boy Scouts have rented a room in the Cole block, which they are fitting up for their use.

Personals.

Stanley Shepherd is spending a few days in Union, and later will go to Little Falls and Utica before returning home.

Miss Marion Shepherd is visiting relatives in Little Falls.—Mrs. Herbert Strait of Unadilla is visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Cook.—Paul Wykes, who enlisted in the Medical corps several weeks ago, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wykes.

To Otsego Village Subscribers.

Owing to inability to secure prompt and satisfactory service by carrier in the village of Otsego, the subscribers there are, for the present at least, being served through the mails. By this method it is hoped that all will receive their paper regularly each day.

Vision, August 29.—There will be a special school meeting at the school house Tuesday evening, September 3, at 8 o'clock.—The regular meeting of the grange will be held Friday evening, September 6. The children will furnish entertainment for the lecture hour.—Two stars have been added to the service flag at the grange in honor of Glenn Hall and Elmore Auger, who have recently entered the service.—Mrs. George E. Hughes of Mt. Vision is displaying a service flag for her brother, Corp. M. G. Donlin, who is serving with the Fifty-seventh engineers, somewhere in France.—Mr. Segor is displaying a service flag in honor of his son, and Arthur Hall a flag for his son, Glenn.—Mrs. Harford Pattengill goes Saturday to her school work in Tarrytown, where she will teach the coming year. Mrs. Pattengill has been teacher eight years.

To Mt. Vision Red Cross Workers.—To the members of the Red Cross of Mt. Vision branch.

Those who are knitting socks take notice. The socks of each pair are to be of equal length, 14 inches. The heels knit not double and with Kitchener toes. The heels knit according to directions. Mrs. E. J. Pattengill, president. Miss A. A. Wilbur, sock inspector.

Few Non-Italian Popes.

A majority of the popes have been Italians, but there is no national limitation. Pope Clement II, for example, was a Saxon German, whose family name was Suldger; Clement IV was a Frenchman named Leo Gros; Clement V was a Frenchman named d'Agout; Clement VI was another Frenchman named Pierre Roger; Alexander VI was a Spaniard, named Borgia; Calixtus II was a Frenchman and Calixtus III was a Spaniard named Borgia and was uncle to Alexander VI. These are a few examples of non-Italian popes.

MRS. DOOLEY'S ADVICE TO WORKING GIRLS

Milwaukee, Wis.—I wish all girls who work and suffer from functional disorders would profit by my advice and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before I was married, when I came home from work at night, I would be just worn out with pains which dragged me down. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me feel like a new woman. I can work from morning until night and it does not bother me, and I wish all girls who suffer as I did would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.—Mrs. H. Dooley, 1135 25th St., Milwaukee, Wis.

Working girls everywhere should profit by Mrs. Dooley's experience, and instead of dragging along from day to day with life a burden, give this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. It has overcome just such conditions for thousands of others, and why not for you? For special advice, write for Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of their 40 years experience is at your service.

SMASHES HIS GERMAN RAZOR

Going to Buy Instead One That Bears a United States Brand.

St. Paul, Minn.—"Made in Germany." These words inscribed on a brand new razor purchased the other day by Traffic Patrolman Thomas Brown, whose station is at Fourth and Wabash streets, so enraged him after his attention was called to it by Dan Costello that he smashed the "Hun" razor against the court house wall.

"I wouldn't shave myself with any of those —! —! razors if I had to," said Brown.

"Now I'm going to buy a good razor and it's going to be marked 'Made in U. S. A.' and don't you forget it," were his parting words.

GEORGE F. JOHNSON Says:

"This district will be FORTUNATE INDEED, if Senator William H. Hill represents it in Congress and the Government at Washington will also be fortunate."

"On his RECORD in the State Senate, Senator Hill has abundantly proved that he is in EVERY WAY fitted to represent this District in Congress. It is just such representatives that the Government at Washington needs—men who are ABLE to work EVERY DAY; who are "on the job"; who are LOYAL THROUGH and THROUGH; who will give 100 per cent of their time and their ability; who will do the work they are paid for doing, as a simple matter of course; who will not seek to "play politics" with the war, or in ANY way seek to advance their selfish interests."

Mr. Johnson has known Senator Hill for all of his mature life—better than any other man excepting the Senator's Father has known him. His estimate of the Senator's integrity and ability is not lightly given. George F., KNOWS THE MAN.

Again in Russia there are glimmers of reason among the rank and file of the people. The intelligentsia are again coming to the fore as leaders again coming to the fore as leaders from the Bolshevik government are daily becoming more numerous. But for the course of pro-Germans in Russia the war might have been ended before this time. As it is the war has doubtless been prolonged months if not years, but none the less the end of it is in sight, and loyal Russians will have a hand in the finish.

The newspapers of Germany, for all of the government censorship, are beginning to show some conceptions of the real war condition. The Berliner Tageblatt concedes that the German conception that the reserve army, estimated at sixty divisions, had been used up in the three German drives, is based on error. Vorwärts sadly asks why Germany has no friends and answers that she has always been bragging about her strength and has judged everything in terms of strength, until now in the time of danger she has no friends. Evidently the Teuton people are doing much thinking for themselves these troubled days.

The recent notice of the fuel administration relative to the discontinuance of the use of motor vehicles on Sunday has been received with general acquiescence if not in every case with approval. It is fair to assume that the government is more closely in touch than the individual with gasoline conditions and with the degree of conservation needed to win the war. Our soldier boys are fighting for the freedom of the world and when they are risking their lives it is a small thing to ask those at home to forego a few days of pleasure.

Germany is fighting yet, but she fights a nation without hope. In this her attitude is vastly different from that of the earlier war days. The Allies, on the other hand, are pushing on valiantly and with full assurance in victory.

Let us forget, it should perhaps be noted that the Kaiser has not in some time set forth any messages of gratulation, nor yet has claimed any close partnership with God. In view of what is happening on the battle front it is a proper thing for him to do, since manifestly there is nothing of late which indicates any such partnership.

The statement—that the Crown Prince is out of it as commander of one of the important German armies may well be received with a degree of disquiet by the Allies. His presence and commanding influence at the front have always been a real asset to the Allies; and it is unfortunate from any standpoint, save that of Germany, that he should be replaced by able officers. But, after all, no officers however capable seem now able to stem the tide of the Allied advance.

"A dictated peace," says the Philadelphia Public Ledger, "is the only safe peace. 'There is no doubt' about that. The only way by which peace and freedom can be guaranteed to the world is by the definite defeat of German junkerdom. And as for the people and the rulers of Germany there is not now believed to be any such distinction as at an earlier date was made by many. Defeated, they whine for mercy; triumphant, they grant small mercy to their victims. Russia knows all about that. There is no reason why the observing other nations of the world should not know."

In the town of Union the owners of dogs had an idea, apparently elsewhere held, that they could keep canines without tags or licenses. At least over 100 dog owners had, which is a goodly number in a town like Union. Recently, however, the state constabulary appeared on the scene, made an investigation on its own account and as a result has already disposed of over five score animals' painlessly by asphyxiation. There will be another batch killed before Union is cleared up, and then the constabulary will turn its attention to other quarters. All this is by way of warning to other townships and the owners of unlicensed curs therein.

Contests in Delaware County.

County Judge L. F. Raymond of Delaware county was a guest at the Oneonta last night. He has no opponent for the Democratic nomination for county judge, but there is a contest between himself and A. J. McNaughton of Stamford for the prohibition nomination. "McNaughton is running around quite a bit," said the Judge, "but I have done very little." The real contests in Delaware county are between Hill and Rogers for the Republican nomination for representative in congress, between Long and Nesbitt for the Republican nomination for member of assembly, and between Vandemark and Hall for the Republican nomination for sheriff.

RED CROSS SCHOOL NEXT WEEK.

Interesting Program for Institute of Information at Cooperstown.

The Red Cross school of information, one of the first schools of the sort to be held outside the larger cities, opens at Otsego hall, Cooperstown, on Wednesday next. Leading speakers from various departments of Red Cross work will be in attendance and it is hoped that there will be a large number present from Oneonta and from each of the branches of the Oneonta Red Cross chapter. A limited number of tickets is still available at $1 each at the Red Cross headquarters in this city; and accommodations for those who desire to remain in Cooperstown during the school can be secured by addressing L. H. Spencer, proprietor, at Otsego hall. The program for the two days is as follows:

Wednesday, September 4.
10:00 a. m.—Enrollment and Introductory Talk, Wallace Stock.
10:40—Red Cross Organization with Chart, Mrs. F. DePeyster Townsend.
11:45—History of the Red Cross, Mrs. Frank W. Baldwin. Quiz on Notes, Mr. Stock.
2:20 p. m.—Chapter Organization, Albert T. Tamblin.
3:15—Publicity, Mr. Stock.
3:40—Junior Members and Educational Activities, Mrs. Ralph K. Jones. Quiz on Notes, Mr. Stock.
5:15—Red Cross and Red Tape, Albert W. Staub.
9:15—Address by Countess Laura de Turczanowicz.

Thursday, September 5.

10:00—Civilian Relief, Waldo Amos.
11:00—Nursing, Mrs. Baldwin.
11:45—Foreign Relief, Miss Alice Taylor Wharton. Quiz on Notes, Mr. Stock.
2:20 p. m.—Workroom Problems, Mrs. Jones.
3:00—Conservation of War Materials, Mr. Stock.
3:20—Allotment and Production, Mr. Tamblin.
3:45—Military Relief, Mr. Amos. Quiz on Notes, Mr. Stock.

STATE SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE

Located at Delhi Gives an Intensely Practical Course—Tuition Is Free.

Announcements of the New York State School of Agriculture and Domestic Science at Delhi are being sent out and the booklet announces changes in the course aimed to make it more intensely practical. The desire of the school is to return the boy or girl to the farm home prepared to apply the latest ideas to the every day problems of the farm and the farm home.

C. O. DuBois, the capable director, calls attention to the following important facts:

The course at the school is from October to April, the balance of the year being spent upon the farm putting into practice the lessons learned in the school. A carefully outlined project must be carried on during the summer, this may consist in keeping dairy records, keeping data on crops, caring for an orchard, raising poultry or doing many other things associated with successful farming.

The work with animals will be done in a steam heated recitation room at the barn where stock will be brought into the room for study. In all other ways the equipment of the school will enable the student to apply the knowledge learned. We are remembering that there is an "after the war" when we shall badly need trained men and women on the farms. We appreciate the need of a practical education and emphasize the study of English, arithmetic, spelling, etc. A great deal of attention is given to the study of rural social problems as our boys and girls will be asked to become community leaders. We feel that the boy will see the need of English if he sees its application to a happy, prosperous life, and that our girls will become proud of the fact that they are home makers if they find that the department and community gives credit for house work well done.

SHORT PARTRIDGE SEASON.

Hunting Will Be Allowed Only During Month of October.

Following hearings held in various cities of the state on Monday and Tuesday of this week, the State Conservation commission has issued an order shortening by one-half the open season for ruffed grouse, or partridge, as they are more commonly called. Heretofore the season was during the months of October and November, except on Long Island, where it was for the months of November and December. Under the new order the season opens on October 1 and ends on October 31, annually, both dates inclusive, in all the state save Long Island. On that island the open month is November.

During the open season a person may take not to exceed ten birds, and not more than two in one day. The order appears in other columns of The Star of today and should have the careful perusal of every sportsman. It was made after careful consideration and several hearings at which there was good representation of gun clubs of the state, and it decidedly represents the consensus of opinion of those who have given the matter most consideration.

Also it is understood that the commission, having taken the matter up, will see that the order as made is strictly enforced.

No Worry.

Ex-Gov. Hadley of Missouri is not worrying about the coal shortage. He is now professor of law at the University of Colorado at Boulder and has spent his summer chopping wood. He hired 15 university students to help him and they have 50 cords of pitch wood ready and piled up on a siding near a railroad. Prof. Hadley bossed the job and wielded the axe vigorously and he has enough wood to keep Jack Frost away all winter.—[Exchange.]

NEWSPAPERS EAST AND WEST

Shooting Off the Pests.

We take off our hats to the French for their efficient handling of Bols. Similar outward and visible signs of admiration are inspired by the action of the British military authorities in refusing to Representatives Lundeen, of Minnesota, and Dillon, of South Dakota, permission to visit the British front. Washington dispatches state that Lundeen and Dillon "voted against all acid test war measures." They also contain the pleasing information that both recently were defeated for renomination. Having evidently taken their poor imitation of Americanism with them to the other side, why should they be permitted to visit the British or any other front?—[New York Herald.]

Consolation.

When haircuts go to a dollar there will be fewer dollars go into haircuts. So far as they would have an influence on society, however, dollar haircuts would work out on a fifty-fifty basis. There would be more long-haired men, of course, but at the same time there would be fewer short-haired women.—[Philadelphia Inquirer.]

D—n the Kaiser!

Owners of motor vehicles, motor boats and motor cycles are given an illustration of what war means by the Fuel Administration's establishment of motorless Sundays. The purpose is to conserve gasoline which can be put to much better use these days than in joy riding. A motorless Sunday will at least have the merit of being a distinct novelty. It will not be welcomed by the undertakers.—[New York Herald.]

Congratulations.

South Carolina is to L. congratulated upon having defeated Cole Blaise in the Democratic primary. He is the most offensive of all the Bolshevik politicians whom South Carolina has produced since the days of the "wool hat" revolution. It would be flattering to him to assume that he was rejected as a shacker and a pacifist. We prefer to believe that his fellow South Carolinians repudiated him because he is a vulgar nuisance.—[New York Tribune.]

Reminds One of the Kaiser.

Col. Roosevelt reminds one of the Kaiser because he is so different. The latter had six sons before the war commenced and he has them now, sound and well so far as is known. Col. Roosevelt on the other hand has lost one of his sons, another has been wounded and a third, Capt. Kermit Roosevelt, has been awarded the military cross for services in Mesopotamia. Capt. Roosevelt was attached to the British army in Mesopotamia on special duty until he joined the American forces in France.—[Utica Press.]

An Announcement and an Assurance

We are proud to announce our first showing of KUPPENHEIMER CLOTHES for Fall 1918

With it we shall also set forth a message of assurance—of what you can expect of this store and the merchandise associated with it, under war-time conditions.

The certain high quality standards that have always distinguished this store and Kuppenheimer Clothes will be faithfully upheld.

Perhaps our quality merchandise will cost a little more. If so, it is worth it because the best is always the cheapest—in buying the best lies the secret of true economy.

LOCAL MENTION.

—C. D. Dye of South Side is driving a Dodge car, The Star being in error in stating in a recent issue that it was another make.

—E. J. Irish, Star collector, was unable to finish his collections in Schenectady yesterday afternoon, has been brought to his home in this city and his many friends will be pleased to learn that he is resting comfortably.

—Thomas Glynn, who suffered a stroke of paralysis at Schuyler Lake yesterday afternoon, has been brought to his home in this city and his many friends will be pleased to learn that he is resting comfortably.

—Motorists are quite careless the police report about stopping and leaving their cars in front of the theatre entrance and in fact the entrance to other public buildings including the hotels. They are requested to observe the regulations.

—Snookums, the cunning little dog belonging to Miss Beatrice Hendrick, whom everybody in that section of the city knew and petted, is no more. His death will be regretted not only by members of the Hendrick family, but by his numerous little and big friends in the vicinity.

—Considerable harm was done especially to the sweet corn in the war gardens at Neah-wa park yesterday by a herd of cows which found the aforementioned corn quite palatable. Owners of the gardens were inclined to complain, after having worked all the season long to secure some corn, to have it go for fodder for cows.

—There will be a dance at the Country-club Monday evening, beginning at 8:30, with music by Wolcott's orchestra. From 7:30 to 8:30 there will be community singing under competent leadership, in which all are expected to take part. Those who desire to have dinner at the club on that evening are requested to telephone the club (19-F1C) by Saturday evening.

—For the information of those who do not understand why some items of war news are not bulletined at this office, it may be stated that the Associated Press serves both morning and afternoon papers and in the period allotted to the evening papers only such news items as are sent out with the special mark of "E. O. S." affixed can be sent to morning papers. All war messages possible to secure in the day period are promptly displayed at this office.

FEDERAL EMPLOYMENT BUREAU.

Soon to be Established in the Suite of Rooms Over Saunders' Bookstore.

The federal government is soon to establish in the suite of rooms over the bookstore of Henry Saunders, which have been leased until July 1, next, for the purpose, an employment bureau for the federal service.

The arrangements were made by Louise C. Odeanant of New York city, who recently returned to that city after spending several days in Oneonta looking after a suitable location. The rooms named were considered most adapted to the purpose and a lease was drawn which has been forwarded to the authorities for confirmation. The agent stated that as soon as the lease is approved the agent to have charge of the bureau will be assigned and the office opened. It is assumed that the bureau will be of assistance in securing help for all departments of the federal government and will give aid to all concerns engaged in government work. The date of the opening of the office has not been announced.

An Appeal to Motorists.

Our government having requested that all motorists refrain from using their pleasure cars on Sunday until further notice, it is felt that the members of our club and all patriotic owners of cars should accord cheerful compliance. In behalf of our organization which has always taken the lead in matters affecting motorists all owners and drivers of cars are urged to conform to the restriction. By so doing we will again demonstrate our loyalty to our country and to the boys who are fighting the battles of liberty and civilization abroad. Oneonta Automobile Club, by L. P. Butts, president.

Meetings Today.

The Loyal Helpers of the Free Baptist Sunday school will meet with Mrs. Benjamin Hughes, 402 Main street, Friday afternoon.

The Ladies Aid society of the United Presbyterian church will meet this afternoon at 2:30 at the church. All ladies invited.

Meeting Postponed.

The Fidelity class meeting has been postponed another week, so will all members please move, as usual at the Red Cross rooms.

On River street, near Main, there are two good residence properties for sale. Single house, eight rooms, range, furnace, bath, garden, $2,000. Double house, range, furnace, gas light, bath, garden, on both sides, $4,000. You can buy either place on very easy terms, and they are worth the money. Inquire W. D. Bush, Oneonta Hotel building. GOOD-BYE FIFTY-FIFTY

IMPORTANT CHANGES MADE IN FLOUR REGULATIONS.

Beginning September 1 Wheat Flour May Be Used with Other Cereals in Eighty-Two Ratio — Victory Flour Will Be Milled — Rules and Regulations — Graham and Whole Wheat Need No Substitutes Until Sept. 10.

The following notice, received in Oneonta yesterday by Food Administrator Morris, will be of interest to all dealers in flour, bakers and those whose baking is done at home:

"To the County Food Administrator — All retail dealers in all of the counties of New York state, including Westchester, Nassau and Suffolk counties but not including Greater New York, are authorized to sell whole wheat and graham flour up to and including September 10 without substitutes. Dealers having these flours in stock in danger of spoilage are urged to dispose of same during this period."

The issuance of this order is made desirable on account of the new general flour regulations which are to become effective on September 1. These regulations are based on a telegram received from Mr. Hoover, which states that a careful survey of the food resources of the two hundred millions of people fighting against Germany shows that there must be conservation of wheat flour during the coming year. It has been agreed that the wheat bread of the Allies shall contain 20 per cent of other grains than wheat, and it is only just that we should bear our share in this saving with those who are suffering more greatly from the war than ourselves. To make the plan more effective, beginning Sept. 1, the millers of the country will provide a mixed flour complying with the international policy, which will be available for purchase for the household. Where straight wheat flour is sold by dealers there must be 20 per cent of other flour sold at the same time. All bakers' breads must contain 20 per cent of other cereals, and the administration relies upon householders making the same substitution. Corn meal for use in corn bread should be purchased separately from combination sales.

The ready mixed flours, which will doubtless form the bulk of bread-stuffs sold after the plan gets fully in operation, will be called Victory flour and must be milled in accordance with the standards of the United States Food administration, and except: pancake flour must be milled in these exact proportions: Mixed wheat and barley, must be four parts wheat flour to one of barley; wheat and corn flour the same; wheat and rye, three of wheat to two of rye; wheat, barley and corn, eight of wheat, and one each of corn and barley; whole wheat, entire wheat or graham or meal at least 95 per cent of the wheat berry. All these Victory flours may be sold without substitutes, but at no greater price than that of standard wheat flour.

If a retailer carries in stock standard wheat flour he must sell one of these substitutes or a combination of them in the proportion of four of wheat to one of substitutes. If there are other substitutes available and the grocer wishes to carry them he may sell kafir flour, milo flour, bean, potato, rice, oat, peanut, sweet potato and buckwheat flour in the same proportions in the combination, but rye must be in the proportion of two of rye to three of wheat.

Bakeries must use the same proportions as the above in all products, except Class A-crackers, in which only ten percent of substitutes are required. The previous rules limiting the supply of flour in the hands of millers, wholesalers, retailers and bakers to a thirty day's supply is changed to sixty days, and the rules limiting the sales to an eighth of a barrel of flour to a family in cities and a quarter of a barrel in sparsely settled districts are rescinded.

There are in substance the rules of the Food administration which will become effective September 1. While some straight flour will doubtless be sold, in general it is believed that the government will encourage the use and purchase of Victory flours above noted, for which no substitution is required.

READY FOR REGISTRATION

LOCAL EXEMPTION BOARD NAMES CHIEF REGISTRARS FOR AGED MEN.

Man Power Bill Expected to Become a Law Today and to Provide Upwards of 2,500 Men From This District Alone — Anticipated Date is September 7.

In anticipation of an early proclamation by the President under the Man Power bill now pending in congress, the Local Board has practically completed its preparations for the registration of men between the ages of 18 and 21 and 21 and 45. This task, which will involve the registering on one day of upwards of 2,500 men in the district, is one of the most difficult that the Board has had to handle yet. It is expected that the registration will occur on Saturday, September 7th. Men will register at their respective primary voting places. For each election district in its territory, 25 in all, the Board has appointed a chief registrar who will be responsible for the registration in his district. He will appoint his assistants subject to the approval of the Local Board.

The registrars for the district are: City of Oneonta, 1st ward, 1st district, Frank Kilpatrick; 1st ward, 2nd district, Earl C. Bates; 2nd ward, 1st district, Clarence V. Cepceley; 2nd ward, 2nd district, Harry C. Bard; 3rd ward, Jesse Leal; 4th ward, W. L. Bolton; 5th ward, Fred Wendell; 6th ward, Harold Follett. Frank G. Sherman will have general supervision of the city districts. Unadilla, 1st district, William Sisson; 2nd district, A. J. Teed; 3rd district, A. E. Fixley. Otego, 1st district, Wood D. VanDewerken; 2nd district, James E. Newell. Worcester, 1st district, Omer Sloan; 2nd district, Louis J. Howland; 3rd district, Fred Deardestley. Butternuts, Charles P. Root. Laurens, 1st district, Fred Williams; 2nd district, Henry Culver. Maryland, 1st district, Fred Rice; 2nd district, James Friery. Milford, 1st district, Warren J. Kiltz; 2nd district, C. S. Morris. Oneonta Town, 1st district, Frank Talor; 2nd district, John W. Orr.

As soon as the forms are received representatives of the Board will make the rounds of the district, distributing the forms, giving the needed instructions and administering the federal oath to the chief registrars and their assistants.

The Board has received notice that as soon as the bill becomes a law there will be started the greatest campaign of publicity ever used by a governmental agency. Ingenious methods of all kinds will be used to bring before the attention of the men of the country when, where and how they must register if within the age limits.

Board Notes.

George M. Case, inducted into service under voluntary call 1,170 left yesterday morning for Madison Barracks, Sacketts Harbor, where he will undergo a course of training for overseas duty with the Photographic section of the Division of Military Aeronautics.

Only one man was allotted to the Board under voluntary call 1,181, although seven applications were wired to the adjutant general. The lucky man is Charles S. Jennings, the first applicant. He will entrain August 31 for Durham, N. H., where he will train as an electrician in the New Hampshire college.

The following men are called to report to the Board this afternoon at 3 p. m. for military duty: Alex Eigner, Charles W. Hubbard, Albert Misher and William G. Boardman. The alternate is Lynn P. Earl. The four men will entrain tomorrow morning at 6:30 for Camp Upton.

RECORD RUN FROM NEW YORK.

Gerard Film of "Four Years in Germany" Comes from Metropolis by Auto

As soon as the excitement attending the burning of the film of Gerard's "Four Years in Germany" was over Wednesday evening, Manager Addison got in communication with the First National Film company of New York, by which the films are furnished, told of the misadventure and requested that a new film be sent on as soon as possible, and that in any event it should reach Oneonta in time for the performance last evening. The film company cheerfully agreed to cooperate and gave Mr. Addison assurance that it would do its part and that the film would arrive without fail.

At about 4 o'clock the band on the street heralded the coming of the film and gave assurance that there would be an entertainment. A big crowd assembled for the first performance, many being unable to obtain admission. The film, which had been sent to this city by auto from the metropolis, arrived in the city at 7:45 o'clock, and at 7:19 the evening performance began. The second drew also a crowded house and there is no doubt that the same thing will be true of the three performances today.

The auto in which a special messenger brought the film, left New York promptly at noon, and taking the Kingston route through the Catskills, reached the city limits as the clock was striking seven. It was a stroke of enterprise on the part of the theatre company, and of the film people, which deserves recognition.

JIMMIE TAMSETT GOES SOUTH

Former Oneontan and Well-Known Baseball Man to Become Farmer.

The following from the Albany Journal of yesterday will interest many friends in Oneonta of a well-known ball player whose home was formerly in this city:

After 17 years in professional baseball, a successful college coach, and Albany business man, James E. Tamsett will leave this city Saturday for the south, where he will begin the simple life as a farmer in his orange grove at Vista Heights, Washington county, Alabama.

Jimmie, as he is familiarly known to baseball rooters, has been a resident of this city for the last 19 years. Temporarily at least he will leave the athletic field to raise oranges and sweet potatoes and other edibles. If Jimmie can make the dirt fly as fast in Alabama as he did as shortstop on a baseball team, Uncle Sam is going to have an abundant supply of food-stuffs.

"Twenty years ago Tamsett stepped on the professional diamond in the Southern league. Naturally gifted with fleet legs, his success was assured from the start. After playing with several class A clubs, Tamsett finally came to this city as shortstop of the Senators and later became manager of the team with the leaving of 'looming' Bill Clarke. Many fans idolized Tamsett and maintained that there wasn't a better selling shortstop in the New York State league. His inability to clout the ball regularly, they asserted, was the only thing that kept him from hooking up in the big leagues.

"For the last two years 'Jimmie' has coached the Union university baseball team, and although the war made many inroads on the team, he turned out two good nines. Tamsett and his wife and daughter, Margaret, who reside on Livingston avenue, will motor south. Although the fans will regret his going, he will have the best wishes of his many friends, who wish him success and continued prosperity in his new venture."

Former Oneontan Dead.

Mrs. Riley Sessions Expires at Home of Daughter in Ohio.

The following from the columns of a recent issue of an Oberlin, Ohio, newspaper of recent date will interest many friends of the deceased in her native town of Oneonta:

"After an illness of ten days, following a stroke of apoplexy, Mrs. Harriet Whitman Sessions died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Arnold, 90 East College street, Thursday, August 15.

"Mrs. Sessions was in her seventy-sixth year. She was born at Oneonta, N. Y., February 15, 1843. She was the last of her family, her brother having died a few months ago. Her husband, Riley Sessions, died sixteen years ago. Mrs. Arnold was her only child.

"For nineteen years Mrs. Sessions had made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Arnold and in that time had endeared herself not only to those who were bound to her by ties of blood, but as well as to all those who were brought in touch with her. Mr. and Mrs. Arnold have the sympathy of friends in their loss.

"Funeral services were conducted at the home Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Rev. Dr. R. G. Hutchins officiated. Interment was made in Westwood."

Former Oneontan Dead.

John R. Griggs, a resident of the town of Westford, died at 10:45 Wednesday morning at the homestead in that township, after several months of serious illness. Mr. Griggs was born 53 years ago and was a son of the late Waldo and Louise (Herdman) Griggs. His earlier life was spent in Westford, but for five years he was located in Cobleskill, where he was engaged in the sewing machine business. Later he came to Oneonta, which was his home for ten years, and about ten years ago he returned to the homestead, where he died.

Mr. Griggs is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Mattie Garlock of Westford, and by one uncle, Melvin Griggs of Worcester, and an aunt, Miss Ella Griggs of Danville. The funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. today at his late home, and burial will be in the Westford cemetery.

Mr. Griggs had many friends in Oneonta and heartfelt sympathy will be extended to the bereaved wife.

Picnicked Despite the Rain.

There were nearly 50 members and friends of the Elm Park church who ignored the rain and the wet grounds and attended the picnic of the church held at Neah-wa park yesterday and following an excellent dinner served at noon those in attendance enjoyed a social time and indulged in some base ball and other outdoor amusements. The event passed pleasantly despite the rain of the morning and all in attendance enjoyed the event.

FOR
COMFORT,
and
FUEL ECONOMY

It would be wise to investigate your present heating system and see that it circulates (not radiates) pure, warm, ever changing air, free from dust, gas and smoke. If it does less than this you are jeopardizing the health of your family.

Ask your doctor. He will tell you that the proper percentage of moisture in the air is supremely essential to comfort and health. Also satisfy yourself with regard to the importance of the proper circulation of the air. You get both in our installation of Glenwood Furnaces, either the one pipe or several pipe style.

Let us talk with you in regard to your particular case.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT!

On September 1, 1918, the subscription price of the Daily Star will be advanced to $5 per year; single months, 50 cents; one week, 12 cents. These rates cover all subscriptions either by carrier or by mail.

This advance in subscription price has become imperative due to the advance in cost of producing the paper, but more especially because of the vastly larger expenditures for print paper, postage and labor.

In order that all subscribers may have equal opportunity payments on subscriptions at the old rate of $4 per year will be accepted during the month of August only. In no event will a payment extending a subscription beyond Jan. 1, 1919, be accepted. All who wish may pay to the last named date at the $4 rate.

It is hoped that all patrons will appreciate the fact that this action has been deferred until it has become imperative. With the co-operation of all present patrons it is believed that the publication of a daily newspaper of creditable dimensions can be continued—without which the city would be unfortunate indeed.

Wall Paint That Lasts!

Pure, old reliable Dutch Boy white-lead, mixed, ready for the painter's brush—gives soft, restful interior effects, and an enduring surface which is as washable as tile.

Dutch Boy Flat Wall Paint

Liquid Lead is the name of the new Dutch Boy paint, ready-mixed for exterior work. It's old reliable Dutch Boy white-lead, thinned with pure linseed oil and the necessary turpentine and drier. The choice of master painters. A "lead-and-oil" paint that is elastic, durable, weatherproof, and most economical because it covers most space per gallon.

FORTUNATE WITH MATERIALS

Work at Huntington Park Progressing Favorably with Help of Problem.

When the task of grading and fitting the Huntington park grounds for the purpose was first undertaken it was assumed that the question of materials would be the most serious problem, but this has not proven to be the case. The question of help proving the more difficult with the number on the job each day uncertain until the hour of commencement arrived. Other jobs are in competition and work stoppage has affected the number at work.

Supt. Gurney considers that he has been exceptionally fortunate in securing the needed materials. At first he was told that he would be unable to secure water pipes this season but the required amount of pipe was secured on the ground or in place beneath it, as is also the sewer pipe required for the job. Negotiations for the needed electrical materials not meeting with success, Supt. Gurney and J. B. Lane, a day or two since, made a special trip to Schenectady to interview the General Electric people. At first they were informed that more orders were on hand than could be filled. Finally the other whom they interviewed turned and said "Well, I'll see what you require." After looking the list over he called an attendant and among the extra stock, composed mostly of one order which had been cancelled for one reason or another, practically the entire order was filled. Even the granite chisels required for the walks have been shipped, although there may result some delay in their arrival.

Foreman Kirschhoff is placing the concrete forms for the plaza in the center of the park and is making good progress. The water mains are being connected up on Dietz and Church streets and the progress thus far made is encouraging and much will be accomplished this season.

OTSEGO POTATO INSPECTION.

State expert on Plant Pathology to Visit Otsego Farmers.

The Otsego County Farm Bureau has made arrangements for Irving Vogel to visit this county next week and inspect the potato fields with the idea of determining which fields are best suited for seed purposes. Mr. Vogel is an employee of the Department of Plant Pathology of Cornell university and is an expert on potato diseases. Every year there are many thousands of bushels of potatoes shipped out of Otsego county for seed purposes and any means that can be employed to improve this seed should be grasped. Any farmer in the county who has potatoes that he believes are good enough to be sold to his neighbors for seed purposes should communicate with the Farm Bureau office at once so that they may bring Mr. Vogel to inspect their field. It is planned that those fields which Mr. Vogel selects as best suited for seed will be widely advertised over the county. It is certain that anyone interested in potato growing will profit by a visit of an expert of Mr. Vogel's calibre.

Reunions of Civil War Veterans.

The Chenango County Civil War Veterans held a reunion on Wednesday at Norwich, at which there was a large attendance, when the rapidly decreasing number of the veterans themselves is considered. Yesterday there was a reunion of Company B of the 14th New York Volunteers at Walton. In the afternoon the members of the company attended the funeral of James Pine, who was one of their comrades.

Safety Overseas.

Mrs. Ora Eaton, R. F. D. No. 3, has received a letter from her son, Corporal Clark Eaton, that he has arrived overseas safely, enjoyed his trip and also saw lots of large fish on the trip over.

Secretary A. E. Davis of the Otsego Y. M. C. A. has received a card announcing the safe arrival overseas of his son, Bertram Davis who is connected with the aviation service.

Natural Sequence.

In one of his essays Aristotle says this: "I have noticed that land that produces beautiful flowers and luscious fruits also produces a very excellent, intelligent and able class of men and women." Aristotle seemed to look upon this as a sort of coincidence, but later in life he discovered that instead of being a coincidence it was a sequence.

Tobacco Raising in Scotland.

During the American Civil war tobacco became so dear that several unsuccessful attempts were made in Scotland for its cultivation. The chief seat of the new culture was in the neighborhood of Kelso, where it succeeded so well that sixteen and one-half statute acres brought $320 per acre.

No Mistaking His Meaning.

Smith was taking his friend out for a drive. The car had the jumps. It talked and bucked and bounced along unsteadily, greatly to the friend's discomfort. They turned into a park boulevard and the friend noted a sign at the side of the road. "Smith, you better not drive on this road," said the friend. "Why?" asked Smith. "Well, that sign says 'Pleasure cars only'."

The Nose Dive.

"The nose dive is a dangerous maneuver," says an aviation teacher. The nose dive is not only dangerous in aviation, but in julepation as well. A nose dive into a julep is exhilarating, but at last it makes the nose look like a premium strawberry.—Houston Post.

West Davenport, August 29. — The Free Baptist Sabbath school of West Davenport will hold their annual picnic at Sherman Lake, Saturday, August 31. Each one will please bring knife, fork, cup, saucer, plate and spoon. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend and enjoy a day's outing with us. By order of committee.

White Family Reunion.

About 50 were in attendance at the annual reunion of the White family, held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles White at West Oneonta on Wednesday. The occasion was keenly enjoyed by members present from Elmira, Binghamton, Smithboro, Otego and Laurens in addition to those from Oneonta. After a substantial dinner there was music rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Collar and Orrin White with the social features most enjoyable. The young people enjoyed a motor ride while the older ones indulged in reminiscences of former gatherings and in conversation. The officers chosen were Charles White as president, Joseph T. White as vice president and Miss Florence White as secretary and treasurer. The next reunion will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Collar.

Why Julius E. Rogers Should Be Nominated for Congress

Most of us believe that with the right to vote women will force the selection of cleaner, abler and stronger men for office. That they will demand clean men of good character and reputation; men of sufficient force to stand by their convictions, and men who do not place political advancement before public interest.

On September 3rd, the women of New York State will for the first time take part in the selection of political candidates. For Congress they must choose between Julius E. Rogers and William H. Hill. Of the women we ask, which of these men meets the standard you have set for a candidate for office?

Mr. Hill is a politician who saw that Mr. Fairchild, the ablest congressman that ever represented this district, could not leave his work at Washington as a prominent member of the ways and means committee, to conduct a political fight. Mr. Hill, therefore, injected himself into the situation as a candidate. Mr. Fairchild, rather than leave his work, so important at this time, at Washington, withdrew. In this way the district and the nation will lose the services of one of Congress' most able members, and a member intimately acquainted with government affairs and needs, and one greatly needed in the position which he has filled for 12 years with both honor and distinction.

Julius E. Rogers is 64 years of age and a college graduate; a farmer and capable business man; an agriculturist to represent an agricultural district.

He has been a member of the State Agricultural society for 35 years.

He has been the president of the Broome County Farm bureau for three years.

He is a member of the Grange and of the Dairy-men's League.

On March 30th, the Rural New Yorker said he is "one of the best farmers in the county and a man of state-wide reputation."

He has been a deacon in the First Congregational church for 35 years. He is clean, able and honest.

He never defrauded a man out of a cent.
His word is good; his promises are worth par.
He has "horse" sense.

He is big enough for the job.

His former pastor, Rev. Willard B. Thorpe, who was born in Oxford, N. Y., wrote of him, "He is one of the finest characters I have ever known."

He has always been and is a Republican—a protectionist Republican.

He is a patriotic American, and will make every sacrifice necessary to aid in winning the war and winning it now.

If nominated and elected, he will be his own boss.

He will be the "representative in Congress" of the people of the United States, and not of any one class.

Congressman George W. Fairchild, who has brought great honor to Otsego County, and whose judgment of these candidates can be trusted, a man of unquestioned integrity, says of Mr. Rogers:

"Mr. Rogers: Earnest, honest, of unquestioned ability and irreproachable character—a man the district may be proud of and who needs no apology."

"Should there be any question, I respectfully ask my constituents as to which of these two candidates should go to Congress as your representative."

Go to the primaries on September 3rd and cast your vote for Julius E. Rogers. He will represent you honestly and it will be unnecessary for you to explain why the district nominated and sent him.

WAR DOGS AND CATS NEEDED

Bureau of Mines Can Use Great Numbers for Experiments With Gas Masks.

If you raised Fido to be a hero send him to the bureau of mines. And if there is a tom cat about the premises who shows signs of heroic qualities send him along, too. The bureau of mines is anxious to get canine and feline heroes right now. They can be devoted to a very useful purpose, one that may be the means of saving the lives of hundreds of American soldiers. The bureau is using cats and dogs in experiments with gas masks that will be supplied to American soldiers at the front. Hundreds of animals can be used and the bureau recently sent out a call for more of them. In each case the animals are shipped at government expense.

The Yale Medical School at New Haven also is conducting experiments with gas masks and can use almost any number of dogs and cats.

DAUGHTER ALWAYS TIRED

Mother says Violet Built Her Up and Completely Restored Her Health. "I have a daughter, Violet, who is now 12 years old. She was born with a very weak constitution and was always tired. I tried everything to build her up, but nothing seemed to help. Then I read about the 'Mother's Own' and decided to try it. After a few weeks of using it, I noticed a great improvement in her health. She is now a healthy, happy girl and I am very proud of her. I can recommend the 'Mother's Own' to any mother who has a weak child."—Mrs. J. B. Galloway, New York City.
